

Local ownership, management and staffing of radio outlets is important to maintain the functioning of communities. Communities are the building blocks of our nation and are best able to prevent and control social problems.
Do everything to keep radio stations locally operated!